

Beltron to help Bihar govt improve service delivery

Beltron Telecom, promoted by Bihar State Electronics Development Corporation, a government undertaking of Bihar, has decided to implement a massive identification and authentication technology initiative that could vastly improve delivery of services to citizens especially the various government schemes and subsidies to people. The company has decided to use the nonClonableID technology to ensure efficient deliver of e-governance.